ACS DISASTER RESPONSE TRAINING: The Oregon Conference Adventist Community Service (ACS) & Disaster Response Department will be hosting two training seminars. Join us on February 27 at 10:00 AM to learn how to begin a new ACS ministry. Has God placed a burden on you to start a new ACS ministry? This class will walk you through simple steps to build successful ministries. Attendees will not only have a better understanding and knowledge of ministry at the end of this class, but they will also have created their action plan for beginning something new in their community. The only prerequisite for this class is a willingness to serve! At 1:30 PM, Sheltering and Donations Operations will be taught. This is a Red Cross certification that will discuss the opening and closing of a public shelter. The Donations Operations class is an overview of handling donations that come into a facility and what is done to house and distribute these goods to those affected by a disaster. This class will give the participant an understanding of the responsibilities of working within a shelter and how ACS members can prepare themselves for working within an ACS shelter. Register at <https://bit.ly/ACStraining2022>. If you have any questions, contact Andy Villanueva at Andy.Villanueva@oc.npuc.org. See Bulletin Board for more details.

A LITTLE GOOD NEWS FROM LAA: For the first time in LAA history (that anyone can remember), our Living Legacy Fund is fully funded for this school year. Living Legacy Fund was created to help students needing additional financial assistance in order to attend LAA. This fund relies solely on the generosity of parent/community donors. The goal for many years is to have funds on hand before awarding them out. Thank you for making this goal a reality and pray for continued support as we work on funding the next year.
